

Two-day programme

Thursday, 30 November and Friday, 1 December at Campus Carlsberg in room K5.05

Refreshments and lunch will be provided both days.

Day 1

The aim of the first day of the workshop is to highlight CLIL principles and/or methodology that can support our own instructional practice as foreign language teacher educators at UCC.

Our guest speaker, associate teaching professor Louise A. Taylor, is a teacher trainer at Hogeschool van Amsterdam (HvA).

HvA offers an English minor in bilingual teacher education (30 ECTS). The cornerstone of this minor is CLIL methodology.

HvA's minor is designed to serve the teaching needs of the Network of Dutch bilingual schools.

Day 2

The aim of the second day of the workshop is to provide us foreign language teacher educators an opportunity to exchange professional experience and insight in relation to the incorporation of CLIL methodology in our own instructional practice at UCC.

Thursday

08:45 - 09:00	Welcome & introduction: Opening remarks by Mette Jørgensen , Head of Internationalisation at UCC
09:00 - 12:00	Highlighting a selection of CLIL principles and/or methodology
12:00 - 13:00	Lunch
13:00 - 14:30	Viewing video clips of primary and lower-secondary classroom practice from the perspective of CLIL and evaluating outcomes in CLIL settings
14:30 - 14:45	Early afternoon refreshments
14:45 - 16:00	Planning and evaluating our own instructional practice as foreign language teacher educators
16:00 - 16:15	Day 1 wrap-up

Friday

09:00 - 09:20	Plenary discussion regarding how CLIL principles and/or methodology can shape our own instructional practice as foreign language teacher educators
09:20 - 11:50	Independent and/or group work: Integrating CLIL principles and/or methodology in our own instructional practice as foreign language teacher educators
11:50 - 12:00	Day 2 wrap-up
12:00 - 12:45	Lunch

This workshop has been financially supported by a pool of competence development grants each earmarked to individual UCC lectures of the foreign languages of German and English. Thus, a word of thanks goes to each and every one of you.